

THE LONGMONT LAW FIRM, LLC

Charles E. Liken Jr., Esq. · (303) 406-2791 · charles@longmont.law · longmont.law

Assertion of Victim Rights & Request for Notification — Colorado Victims' Rights Act

Give this completed form to the victim advocate at the District Attorney's office (and/or the investigating law enforcement agency) to assert your rights and request notifications under the Colorado Victims' Rights Act, C.R.S. § 24-4.1-301 et seq. Find your DA's victim advocate at longmont.law/da-victim-advocates.html

1. Your information (the victim, or the victim's designee/family)

Name

Relationship to the case (victim / spouse / parent / designee, etc.)

Mailing address

Phone

Email

Preferred method of contact: ☐ Phone ☐ Email ☐ Mail

2. Case information (if known)

Defendant / suspect name

Case or report number

Law enforcement agency / District Attorney's office

3. I hereby assert my rights and request to be notified of / heard at:

- ☐ All critical stages of the case and any scheduling changes
- ☐ Bond hearings and any change to bond or protection-order conditions
- ☐ Any plea agreement, disposition, or diversion decision — and to confer with the DA beforehand
- ☐ Sentencing — and I wish to submit a victim impact statement (written and/or oral)
- ☐ Restitution determination for my financial losses
- ☐ The defendant's custody status: release, transfer, escape, or parole
- ☐ Any parole, post-conviction, or record-sealing hearing
- ☐ Protection of my address, phone, employer, and Social Security number in the record

4. Victim impact statement (optional — attach more pages as needed)

How this crime has affected you (physically, emotionally, financially)

5. Signature

Signature

Date

The Colorado Victims' Rights Act applies to an enumerated list of serious crimes, including any crime involving domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Full rights text: longmont.law/victim-rights-act.html. Prepared by The Longmont Law Firm, LLC as a free community resource — not legal advice.