CURRICULUM VITAE SUMMARY

Caroline Cooley

Attorney; CFI, CLR (credentials as shown on her website)

caroline@cooleycfi.com | (303) 388-2787 | cooleycfi.com

Experience and practice

Began practicing family law in Colorado in 1999. Her website lists experience in relocation cases, long-distance parenting plans and international cases, and in substance abuse and its impact on children.

Worked as a contractor with the Office of the Child's Representative, serving as guardian ad litem and counsel for youth in probate and juvenile proceedings, including dependency and neglect cases.

Reports training in, and testimony about, domestic violence and child abuse. As a CFI she states that her reports apply Colorado family law statutes and Chief Justice Directive 04-08. Her website also offers a downloadable CV.

Court roster information

Colorado Judicial Branch CFI roster entry: accepting cases; Colorado attorney: yes; state-paid cases: no; sliding fee scale: no; districts listed: 1st, 2nd, 4th, 17th, 18th, 23rd.

Source and credit

The Longmont Law Firm, LLC compiled this summary on November 16, 2026, in its own words, from the investigator's website (https://cooleycfi.com/) and the Colorado Judicial Branch CFI roster. It is a summary, not the investigator's own CV, and it does not replace it. Statements about experience and training are the investigator's own, as published on that website. The firm does not endorse any investigator; please confirm every detail directly with the investigator.