CURRICULUM VITAE SUMMARY

Maha Kamal

Attorney; founder, Colorado Family Law Project

maha@coloradofamilylawproject.com | (720) 213-6766 | www.coloradofamilylawproject.com

Education

B.A. in International Affairs from the University of Colorado at Boulder.

J.D. from the University of Denver.

Experience and practice

Holds multiple positions on the Colorado Bar Association's Executive Councils for Family Law and for Alternative Dispute Resolution.

Co-chaired the Paraprofessionals and Legal Services (PALS) subcommittee of the Colorado Supreme Court, which helped establish Colorado's licensed legal paraprofessional program.

Founded the Colorado Family Law Project in 2016.

Languages

Fluent in English, Spanish and Urdu/Hindi, per her website.

Court roster information

Colorado Judicial Branch CFI roster entry: not accepting cases; Colorado attorney: yes; state-paid cases: yes; sliding fee scale: no; districts listed: 1st, 2nd, 17th, 18th, 20th, 23rd. Languages on the roster: Hindi, Spanish, Urdu.

Source and credit

The Longmont Law Firm, LLC compiled this summary on November 16, 2026, in its own words, from the investigator's website (https://www.coloradofamilylawproject.com/our-staff/) and the Colorado Judicial Branch CFI roster. It is a summary, not the investigator's own CV, and it does not replace it. Statements about experience and training are the investigator's own, as published on that website. The firm does not endorse any investigator; please confirm every detail directly with the investigator.